

FINRA Will Have Surveillance Oversight of More than 90% of U.S. Equities Trading

Direct Edge announced that it has agreed to have FINRA provide market surveillance services to Direct Edge's two licensed stock exchanges. It is believed the arrangement should go into operation in the fourth quarter of 2013.